TERMS OF USE OF THE CERTIFICATE

1. GENERAL PROVISIONS

- 1.1. These rules set out the requirements and guidelines for companies and organisations that receive and use certificates issued by the Product Certification Centre (hereinafter referred to as the PSC) of Sertifikācijas centrs SIA in accordance with ISO/IEC 17065.

2. TERMS OF USE OF THE CERTIFICATE

- 2.1. The Certificate shall be valid only for the duration of its validity as specified in the Certificate Issuing Documents. The certificate shall apply only to those products, processes or services that have been certified.
- 2.2. The certificate may only be used to label and describe products, processes or services that meet the requirements for certification and have been subject to the certification process.
- 2.3. The certification logo and other markings associated with the certificate may only be used in conjunction with a valid certificate and only on products, processes or services that have been certified. Any other use of the logo and marking is prohibited.
- 2.4. Any reference to the Certificate, including in publications, marketing materials, on-site information or other forms of communication, shall be made in such a way that it is not misleading and clearly reflects the scope and conditions of the Certificate.
- 2.5. If changes are made to the certified products, processes or services, the company must immediately inform the PSC. The PSC will assess whether these changes affect the validity of the certificate and may conduct additional audits or require a new certification process.
- 2.6. The PSC may conduct periodic and unscheduled audits to verify the conformity of certified products, processes or services. The company shall provide access to all necessary documentation and support for the audit.
- 2.7. The company shall maintain compliance with all certification requirements throughout the duration of the certificate. If the company fails to comply with the terms of use of the certificate, the PSC may issue a warning or, if necessary, revoke the certificate.
- 2.8. In the event of a finding of improper or misleading use of the Certificate or associated logo, the PSC may require the cessation of such practice, issue a public notice and/or revoke the Certificate.
- 2.9. If the certificate is withdrawn or if it is lost or damaged, the company must return the original certificate to the certification body. A duplicate certificate may only be issued with the consent of the PSC and in accordance with the procedures laid down by law.

3. MONITORING AND DECLARATION OF CONFORMITY

- 3.1. The holder of a certificate shall be obliged to issue and maintain a declaration of compliance where required by the relevant certification standard. This declaration shall certify that the certified products, processes or services comply with the requirements of the certification. The declaration shall be kept available for monitoring purposes.
- 3.2. The PSC shall maintain the right to monitor and audit the company after the issue of the certificate to ensure that compliance is maintained throughout the lifetime of the certificate.
- 3.3. The PSC shall be entitled to require additional evidence or documentation to demonstrate the conformity of the certified products, processes or services with the specified requirements. The certificate holder is obliged to provide this evidence within the requested time limit.
- 3.4. Where the PSC identifies non-compliance or a risk in meeting the certification requirements, it shall have the right to require corrective action and to set a deadline for its completion. Failure to take corrective action may result in suspension or revocation of the certificate.
- 3.5. The certificate holder shall inform the PSC of any decisions or findings of external oversight bodies that may affect the validity of the certificate or the conformity of the certified product, process or service.

4. SUSPENSION, REVOCATION AND REINSTATEMENT

- 4.1. The Certificate may be suspended if:
  - 4.1.1. the Certificate Holder does not comply with the requirements for certification;
  - 4.1.2. the certificate holder does not allow the certification body to carry out the necessary surveillance activities;
  - 4.1.3. incorrect or misleading use of the certificate is detected.
- 4.2. The Certificate may be revoked if:
  - 4.2.1. the Certificate Holder fails to comply with the certification requirements after repeated warnings;
  - 4.2.2. the Certificate Holder has provided false information during the certification process;
  - 4.2.3. the holder of the certificate ceases to manufacture or provide the certified products, processes or services.
- 4.3. A suspended certificate may be reinstated if:
  - 4.3.1. the Certificate Holder has successfully completed all corrective actions required by the Certification Body;
  - 4.3.2. the PSC has taken the necessary supervisory action and approved the renewal of the certificate.
- 4.4. In the event of suspension or revocation of the certificate, the certificate holder shall immediately cease all references to the certificate, including the removal of all labels associated with the certificate from products, documents and marketing material.

5. HANDLING OF DISPUTES AND COMPLAINTS

- 5.1. The Certificate Holder shall have the right to lodge complaints or appeals in relation to the certification process or the decisions of the Certification Body.
- 5.2. Complaints and appeals shall be handled in accordance with the internal rules of the certification body and the requirements of ISO/IEC 17065. The PSC shall ensure that this process is objective, timely and transparent.
- 5.3. The PSC shall notify the complainant or appellant of the outcome of the investigation and the action taken.

6. END PROVISIONS

- 6.1. These Terms and Conditions shall be binding on all Certificate Holders and shall form an integral part of the Certification Agreement.
- 6.2. The PSC reserves the right to update these rules to ensure compliance with changes in legislation and certification standards. Certificate holders shall be informed of such changes in a timely manner.
- 6.3. These Rules shall enter into force on their approval and shall remain in force until repealed or replaced by new Rules.
